

Five benefits with our collective agreement

- Opportunity to negotiate local agreements regarding, for example, salary and working environment.
- Your salary is protected during reorganization.
- Occupational pension is paid in from day 1 for those under 25 years old.
- The employer cannot change your working hours without talking to you.
- You can appeal the outcome of the salary review.

Are you our new hero at work?

There are great opportunities making a difference at work by getting involved in the union and be elected as a representative in the Finansförbundet.

Now we are looking for more contact representatives and occupational health and safety representatives to create more pleasant and safer workplaces.
